

JUST WAR THEORY: BUT "JUST" FOR WHOM?

Dorothy Brown Memorial Lecture

SPEAKER: DR JENNY TE PAA

SELWYN LIBRARY, 8 ST STEPHENS AVE.,

OPP. HOLY TRINITY CATHEDRAL, AUCKLAND

corner St Stephen's Avenue and Parnell Road, Parnell

FRIDAY 18th NOVEMBER, 2016, 7.30 PM

Dr Jenny Te Paa Daniel (Te Rarawa) is an internationally acknowledged public theologian and professional consultant in theological education. After serving for three years as a lecturer she was appointed Dean of Te Rau Kahikatea at St John's Theological College, Auckland, a leadership role she held from 1992 until 2013. She has led and participated in international delegations and Commissions for the Anglican Communion and the World Council of Churches. Among these was her leadership of the international Anglican Peace and Justice Network which saw her head delegations into parts of the world where peace continues to be yearned for but where justice remains an elusive hope. Examples include Palestine/Israel, Sri Lanka, Rwanda/Burundi and North and South Korea.

Booking essential for catering purposes. No charge. Light refreshments to follow.
Book with barfoots@xtra.co.nz or phone (09) 575-6142.

Arranged by Aotearoa New Zealand Peace and Conflict Studies Centre Trust